Friends of the library

No book discussion this month due to busy holiday schedules. Watch for announcement of the January book.

Wednesday, December 16th at 2 p.m. - Cookie Exchange - The Cookie Exchange is the last program in the Adult Programming Series this year and is a wonderful opportunity to enjoy some relaxation and chat with old or new friends at the library. Even though we call it a cookie exchange, you can bring candy or other holiday treats. Bring a dozen to share of whatever treat you bring. And we have no rules about items being homemade—store-bought is just fine! If it is something for which you have a recipe you would like to share, bring a copy of that with you as well. The library will supply a container for you to take home your shared goodies. In addition to your treats to take with you, tea and cookies are provided to enjoy at the library. The more participants, the greater variety of goodies so please spread the word about the cookie exchange.

Friday, December 18th at 4:15 p.m. - Youth Program - Karin calls this last program of the year "Frostbite". Children ages 0 to 18 years will decorate a frosty, glittery ornament to take home. All supplies are free for this project and snacks and drinks will be provided.

Free computer expertise provided to you at Valle Vista library most Thursdays from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. Call the library at 692-7662 for more information and to schedule an appointment.

Have happy holidays and we send best wishes for a healthy, and happy New Year!
